DECISION AWARDING DAMAGES¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On August 19, 2016, petitioner filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that he suffered a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”) as a result of an influenza (“flu”) vaccination he received on November 3, 2015. Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On November 23, 2016, a ruling on entitlement was issued, finding petitioner entitled to compensation for a SIRVA. On May 4, 2018, respondent filed a proffer on award of compensation (“Proffer”) indicating petitioner should be awarded $87,661.57 comprising $82,500.00 for past and future pain and suffering, and $5,161.57 for past out-of-pocket medical expenses. Proffer at 1. In the Proffer, respondent represented that petitioner agrees with the proffered award. Based on the record as a whole, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to an award as stated in the Proffer.

Pursuant to the terms stated in the attached Proffer, the undersigned awards petitioner a lump sum payment of $87,661.57 in the form of a check payable to petitioner, Turmak Davis. This amount represents compensation for all damages that would be available under § 300aa-15(a).

The clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment in accordance with this decision.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.

RESPONDENT’S PROFFER ON AWARD OF COMPENSATION

I. Items of Compensation

The Court issued a Ruling on Entitlement on November 23, 2016. Based upon the evidence of record, respondent proffers that petitioner should be awarded $82,500.00, which represents compensation for past and future pain and suffering. Respondent also proffers that petitioner should also be awarded $5,161.57, which represents compensation for past out-of-pocket medical expenses. These amounts represent all elements of compensation to which petitioner would be entitled under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a).¹ Petitioner agrees.

II. Form of the Award

Petitioner is a competent adult. Evidence of guardianship is not required in this case. Respondent recommends that petitioner be awarded a lump sum payment of $87,661.57, in the form of a check payable to petitioner. Petitioner agrees.
